Die In Blaze

COATESVILLE, Pa. (UPI)—Seven children, all members of one family, died today when an early morning fire leveled five row homes in Parkesburg, six miles west of here.

The parents and a 10-year-old daughter, oldest of the family's eight children, escaped the two-story frame home.

The dead were identified tentatively as Ralph Hoover, 8; Barbara, 6; Robert, 5; David, 4; Shirley, 3; Brenda, 2 and Daniel 1, all children of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hoover.

Hoover, 30, was admitted to Coatesville Hospital with burns over 30 per cent of his body. The mother, Elizabeth and the daughter Mary, were not injured, the hospital said.

The fire left four other families including 19 children homeless.

Mrs. Grace Hoopes, who lives across the street from the five burned homes, said she was awakened just before 4 a.m. by the sounds of screams from the Hoover home.

She said she phoned Police Chief Earl Shipman who sounded the fire alarm.

George Hoopes, her husband, ran across the street in an effort to aid. He said he saw flames "climbing the front walls of the Hoover home."

"I tried to get into the living room but it was all ablaze," Hoopes said. "Then I tried to get into the Roney home, but it was burning, too."

Joint Rites Set For Point Couple

Joint funeral services for a man and wife who died one day apart were held today at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Moss Point.

Mr. Percival Henry Hinkel, 78, was dead on arrival at Singing River Hospital Wednesday. His widow, Mrs. Lenora Marie Hinkel, 75, died Thursday at Singing River Hospital where she had been a patient for 12 days. They were residents of 1116 May Lane, Pascagoula.

Interment was at Machpelah Cemetery. The Rev. Gregory Johnson officiated.

in-the-nation primary March 12 was based mostly on the hope that it would inject new life into his campaign.

The opening primary in a presidential year attracts a great deal of attention and McCarthy plans to make the most of it. "You can't just fade away," he told newsmen Thursday.

During a prerecorded television interview last month, the President all but voiced the opinion that McCarthy was a Kennedy stalking horse, clearing the way for Robert to do battle for the nomination at the Aug. 25 convention.

Asked what effect McCarthy's campaign was having on him or Kennedy, Johnson said: "I don't know what the effect of the Kennedy-McCarthy movement is having in the country."

assault and battery with intent to do bodily harm, free on bond. A grand jury is not normally called for the January term of court, but Judge Maples said he felt it would serve a useful purpose.

Besides the cases set for grand jury action, cases on the docket include two murder charges against Burl Rouse of Pascagoula accused of killing his wife and stepdaughter, and kidnap charges against three alleged Ku Klux Klan members and their attorney.

Revenue Drops

JACKSON (UPI) — The Tax Commission today reported a dip in general fund collections for December, from the same month for the previous year, although an upward trend continued for the fiscal year collections.

The general fund through December amounted to $88,896,033 as compared to $87,540,611 for an increase of $1,355,414.

Governor Has Another Tumor

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI) — Gov. Wallace said Thursday that doctors have discovered a tumor in her pelvic area, a possible third cancer in two years in the nation's only woman.

Mrs. Wallace, 41, released a brief statement arriving home from a routine examination at the M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute in Houston, Tex.

"My doctors informed me that I have a small nodule in the pelvic area which is possibly malignant," she said. Mrs. Wallace said that she will begin three to four weeks of radioactive therapy at the institute Monday.

Mrs. Wallace, who has undergone surgery twice for cancer in the past two years, said she had asked doctors to be "honest and candid with me and I will in turn be honest and candid with the people of Alabama."

Doctors at Anderson Hospital said there was no way to determine whether the tumor was malignant without surgery and there were no immediate

PECAN MAN KILLS 300 POUND BOAR WITH PISTOL.

Crawling on his hands and knees for 250 yards and using a 44-calibre revolver, P. H. Hinkel of Pecan, Miss., killed a 300-pound wild boar
in a swamp near Pecan last Thursday. The boar was six feet in length, and carried a pair of vicious tusks 6½ inches long.

Mr. Hinkel's hunting companion was E. E. Raby, also of Pecan, who helped him get the big animal out of the swamp.

According to the story told the Chronicle-Star, the boar is the largest of its kind ever seen in that part of the county, and is charged with numerous depredations. Mr. Henkel's marksmanship was good, it is said, his first shot taking effect in the shoulder, and the second being placed squarely between the eyes.

In each case the mayor warned defendant that he was determining put a stop to speeding on Pascalights will also be watched,

mayor said.
